

URGENT ACTION

FEDERAL COURT STAYS VIRGINIA EXECUTION

Ivan Teleguz, a Ukrainian national, received a stay of execution. He maintains his innocence of the 2001 murder for which he was sent to death row in 2006. He had been scheduled to be executed on 13 April.

The US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit granted Ivan Teleguz a stay of execution on 29 March pending filing and resolution of his petition to the US Supreme Court seeking its review of his case.

No further action is requested of the UA Network at this stage. Many thanks to all who sent appeals.
